INTERNATIONAL STUDENT HOMESTAY PROGRAM LIABILITY FORM

The Interlake School Division's International Student Program offers students from around the world an opportunity to be welcomed into the homes and lives of families in our community. This cross-cultural endeavour creates an enriching learning experience for both the students and the hosting families. While hosting families open their home to international students with welcoming hearts and generosity, they must also understand the potential risks and liabilities.

The International Student Program is committed to assisting homestay families to recover costs associated with loss or damage that may be caused by the international student they are hosting. The Interlake School Division cannot be held liable or responsible for any such loss or damage.

Families in the Homestay Program are responsible for their own insurance to cover any costs incurred from hosting an international student in their home. The Interlake School Division strongly advises that each homestay family contact its insurance company to confirm that:

- i. they are properly insured for any loss or damage by an international student, and
- ii. their insurance policy protects them in the event that the international student and/or the biological parent(s) seek legal action against them relating to the condition or maintenance of their home
